— From a religious perspective, yes. I think practicing homosexuality is contrary to God's plan, and that those doing so are putting their souls at risk. That doesn't mean I hate them, as many would claim.

— Liberals do exactly what they accuse conservatives of doing, discriminate against those they disagree with. Case in point, affirmative action, which instead of setting an even playing field, discriminates against non-minorities. Gays could have pushed for civil union licenses and made up their own name for their ceremonies, but that wouldn't have been good enough. They had to punish religious...

Bike for Food raises $23,000

2 years, 5 months ago by Denise Donley

Western Catholic Union President Mark Wiewel biked six days during June 2012

A local man has helped raise more than $23,000 for area charities with his annual bike ride.

Western Catholic Union President Mark Wiewel biked six days during June 2012 from Dixon to Savanna, Quad Cities and back to Dixon, IL to raise money for Quincy area food pantries.

Wiewel said he rides his bike for charity because he wanted to find a way to raise money while doing something he likes to do.

The 310 mile Bike for Food charity ride through Illinois raised $23,053, but Wiewel said there's still a great need to help our local food pantries.

— Brandishing a Firearm is against the law - DUH!!! I would suspect that the large majority of criminals who use a firearm do not go through any training and are probably not concealed carry card holders. Besides where in the story does it say anything about him receiving such training.

— The only thing Hester did wrong was letting himself become the fall boy for our wonderful child mayor! Sad

“In talking with a number of the food pantries, there is so much more need now than what there has been in the past and the need continues to grow,” said Wiewel. “By the WCU Bike for Food, we have the people donate the money directly to the food pantry so they get the money up front as they receive them and they’re able to put that to work.”

Western Catholic Union matched donations up to $500 for each pantry.

Total amounts raised by each pantry, including WCU’s contributions are:

- $2,075 for Canton Council of Churches in Canton
- $1,425 for Douglas Community Center in Hannibal
- $2,041 for Palmyra Food Pantry in Palmyra
- $1,055 for Horizons Social Services in Quincy
- $2,700 for Ladies of Charity in Quincy
- $1,500 for Madonna House in Quincy
- $1,192 for Quanada in Quincy
- $3.762 for Quincy Catholic Charities
- $6,805 for St. Francis Food Pantry
- $498 for Quincy Salvation Army

Wiewel has been riding for charities since 2006 and plans to continue riding for the cause in 2013.
